

ST JOHNS
BUILDINGS
BARRISTERS CHAMBERS

David Mercer
Year of Call: 1980

Profile

BA (Oxon), Diploma in Law

NATURE OF PRACTICE:

David's practice includes representing the police in civil actions, Claimants in clinical negligence cases and he undertakes a broad spectrum of personal injury work for both Claimants and Defendants.

He also maintains a keen interest in family work, particularly ancillary relief and public and private law children's cases.

PARTICULARS OF SPECIAL INTERESTS:

False imprisonment, malicious prosecution and human rights cases concerning the police.

LEVEL OF WORK:

High Court and County Court work to a high value. Court of Appeal. Coroners' Inquests

NOTEWORTHY CASES:

David appears as the Junior both in the High Court and the Court of Appeal in Vellino-v-Chief Constable of Greater Manchester Police [2002] 1 WLR 218.

Brian Cressey-v-TIM, Court of Appeal, Times Law Reports 25th July 2005.

SPECIALIST INTERESTS AND HOBBIES:

Classical Music
European History
Photography

Contact: Ben McKay (ben.mckay@stjohnsbldings.co.uk)

Tel: 0161 214 1500

www.stjohnsbldings.co.uk