Speakers

Chair > Sarah Singleton QC

Sarah is Head of the Family Law Group at St Johns Buildings. She is widely experienced in all areas of family law and has an interest and experience in areas closely associated with family law, including health care and education. Sarah is a Recorder and Tribunal judge of the Mental Health Review Tribunal. She is recommended in both the Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners.

Neil Montaldo

Neil has a wide ranging family law practice with a particular emphasis on financial provision in divorce and public law proceedings. He appears at all levels of court within the Family Division and has attracted a reputation of being extremely "client friendly". He also has a growing reputation in matters concerning sexual harm and non-accidental injury.

Francesca Fothergill

Francesca practices in all areas of ancillary relief and financial provision. She is frequently instructed in cases in which the assets are substantial, involving complex business and pension valuations and issues of inherited wealth. She has particular interest and expertise in cases concerning farms and landed estates and she is used to dealing with expert evidence in this area. She is recommended by the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners.

Jane Walker

Jane is a Family Law Specialist with extensive experience of Children Act proceedings, both public and private law. She acts for Local Authorities and Guardians as well as parents in complex Children Act cases and appears regularly in the High Court and County Court and has acted in a number of Court of Appeal cases. The work she undertakes involves cases of the most serious nature including allegations of serious physical abuse and fictitious illness by proxy. Jane also undertakes divorce and ancillary relief work.

Karl Rowley

Karl's practice covers public and private children cases, wardship, public authority work and TLATA. Karl has appeared at all levels up to and including Court of Appeal and he has a particular interest in cases involving complex medical evidence, including NAHI and purported poisonings. Karl is a Recorder and has also represented clients in the care standards tribunal. He has also been instructed on behalf of nurseries and individual childcare professionals and conducted cases for applicants and defendants in judicial review proceedings.
